PREFACE.

THE fifth and last portion of the American library of the late Mr. George Brinley, after a long delay occasioned by causes beyond the control of the administrators, is now offered for sale.

While the present portion of the catalogue is less in extent, and perhaps in richness of contents, than some of its predecessors, it will be found well worth the careful perusal of all interested in this class of literature. In the department of local history it presents many treasures, as also in that of biography. The extensive pamphlet collections here catalogued are of more than passing interest, for example those of Fourth of July Orations, Fast and Thanksgiving Sermons, Historical and Military Sermons and Addresses, etc.

In the section of Books Privately Printed will be found specimens of some of the rarest of American private and restricted editions; while in that of Newspapers and Periodicals are files and bound volumes which cannot be duplicated in the market. Mr. Brinley was not a collector of maps, nor of autographs; but incidentally he came into possession of some very interesting examples in each of these lines. For instance, note the UNIQUE MS. CHARTS of Boston and New York Harbors described on p. 144, (Nos. 9316, 9317) and the fine collection of Revolutionary and other letters catalogued on pp. 145–154, as well as many other autographs scattered through the catalogue, as on p. 98.

In reviewing this series of catalogues now happily brought to a close, one cannot repress his regret that the collector of this most noteworthy of American libraries was not spared to complete it on the lines on which he had laid it out and to enjoy its continued possession; nor, on the other hand, can one adequately estimate the service rendered to the public and to the cause of American history by one who, like Mr. Brinley, rescues from destruction and oblivion the literary monuments and the "unconsidered trifles" of the infancy of our nation, and puts them in the way of preservation and usefulness to all coming time.

Wilkes's notes were made in minute but legible handwriting, with a fine-pointed pencil. In the following extracts the penciled notes are included in brackets: Mr. Hollis — writes Archdeacon Blackburn — was "a character of remarkable singularity and by no means calculated for general imitation."— ["The EMILE of PATRIOTISM," suggests Wilkes.]

"Strange as it may seem, our patriot [most nobly, most wisely, most liberally, most justly] espoused the cause of the prerogative" — in the dispute concerning the royal proclamation against exporting corn, in 1766 ... "He informs us, however, that ... when, in a visit to Mrs. Macaulay, the question, 'Whether evil may be committed to a great sole public good?' being debated between them, he strenuously held the negative. Does not this look as if he had changed his opinion?" ["Not at all: for the Question is not in point, since Lds. Cht. and Cmd. (Chatham and Camden) committed no 'Evil.'"] p. 307.

"The wretch who would drown a nation's cries with the torrent of corruption: — in vain; the voice of an injured people, like the sword of Michael, will hunt him from his seat of bliss," etc. ["Yes: quoth the Fool: but not to Day."] p. 627.

[New Testament:] VVusku Wuttestamentum Nul-Lordumun Iesus Christ Nuppoquohwussuaeneumun. — Cambridge, Printed for the Right Honourable Corporation in London, for the propogation (sic) of the Gospel among the Indians in New-England 1680. 4°

Dedication to the Hon. Robert Boyle, Governour, and to the Company for the Propagation of the Gospel, &c. (in fac-simile), 1 leaf (verso blank); Portrait of Robert Boyle from the picture in the possession of Lord Dover, 1 leaf (verso blank); Engraving of the seal of the Society; underneath, Printed by order of the Society, John Chamberlayne, Secretary, 1 leaf (verso blank). Title (Indian) 1 leaf; Old Testament. A to Ppppp, in fours; names of the books, 1 leaf (recto blank); N. Test. Title, 1 leaf (verso blank); Text, A2 to Kk2; Psalms in metre, 50 leaves, Kk3 to Yy 4; Catechism, 1 leaf, 1 blank leaf. Bound in at the end is a translation of the (so-called) Catechism by J. Hammond Trumbull, dated Jan., 1865, and privately printed by J. Munsell, Albany, 1865. At the end of all is a leaf containing another engraving of the seal of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, &c., differing slightly from the first, and having on the scroll beneath, The Gift of the Society for propagating the Gospel in Foreign parts, 1704. On the fly leaf in the beginning is written "Zachariah Mayhews, Ano. 1759."

Richly and elegantly bound by Bedford, in grosgrain levant brown morocco, sides double paneled, blind and gold, with center ornaments; gilt edges, with gilt inside borders, and lining and guard leaves of vellum; in a Solander case of olive morocco, lined with velvet. The page measures 7 x 5⅝ in. at the top. Some few leaves (perhaps a dozen) are rather closely trimmed, cutting into catch words; the text is sound.

A bright and fresh copy, in sound old (the original) binding; a slight water-stain on the inner corner of a portion of the O. T. (Kings to Psalms). The page measures about 7¼ inches by 5⅝ at the head; but the volume was badly trimmed, and is nearly a quarter of an inch narrow at the foot. Some of the marginal references, on the lower half of the pages, have been cut into. It has not the leaf containing the "Catechism," at the end of the Psalms in Metre. The second edition, revised by J. Cotton, which is the more valuable to students. This is an excellent working and reference copy. It formerly belonged to Dr. John Pickering, whose autograph is on a fragment of a guard leaf.

"This interesting collection of periodical writings is of the greatest rarity. Thorpe, in one of his Catalogues, states that a gentleman had assured him he could meet with but one copy in his travels through Spain, for which he was asked upwards of £30. It is generally found defective, and copies vary to a considerable degree. The above copy is no exception to this rule: it wants Nos. 303–4, in Vol. IX, which are very frequently absent. Some Nos. have been omitted, while the pagination remains correct; and sometimes there are two with the same No., although the text runs on correctly. . . The periodical seems to have been produced under great difficulties and discouragements: it was suppressed by the Spanish government."—B. Quaritch, Gen. Catalogue, 1880.
A 12th (and last) volume was published in 1794–5. Mr. Quaritch's copy of the 12 vols. was marked £18. in 1880. It should bring a higher price now.
Lieut. Opinion on the case, etc. (1 vol., stitched. 2 pamphlets.)

Jean Gravier of New Orleans inherited land lying in front of the city in one of the deltas of the Mississippi, known as the Batture Ste. Marie (or Jesuits' Batture). Edward Livingston undertook to establish Gravier's claim, and was opposed by the city, the United States, and Thos. Jefferson. "The Batture controversy may take rank with the most striking of the logical or literary duels to which we are wont to refer long after their local or temporary interest has died away, as specimens of learning, acuteness, raillery, or wit. Livingston's answers to Jefferson are little inferior in their way to Bentley's reply to Boyle, Porson's Letters to Travis, or . . . Courier's pamphlets; and involve principles of jurisprudence of universal application." (A. Hayward: Ed. Rev. v. 120.) The above is A RARELY COMPLETE COLLECTION of the pamphlets (in English) relating to the case.

Trans. out of Latyne into English, pp. (8), (1), 1130, (1), calf, binding broken, edges injured by wear or rot, and inside margin by mildew, also two or three small worm holes at end of vol.; the page is in good condition; Plates. f° London, printed by William Taggard, 1610

THOMAS PRINCE'S COPY. AUTOGRAPH AND NOTES.

On the title-page (finely engr. by Elstracke) are the autographs of "Matth. Matson" and "Jn° Watkin"; while on the back of title is "T. Prince. Boston. 8 May 29, 1772. □ ⊏" and scattered through the volume are marginal references, underscorings and marks by him (see on pp. 45–6, 157, 160, 221 and elsewhere). The beautiful plates at pp. 60, 68, of King James sitting on his throne, and in the House of Lords, with the other plates of Peers in their robes are all in good condition. The volume contains also several hundred wood-cut COATS OF ARMS; but as is usual even in much finer copies than this the list of the natural children of Charles Blunt, Earl of Devonshire, on p. 493 is missing. At pp. 72–3 is an early instance of printed Anglo-Saxon.

Although the volume is supposed to be nearly perfect, the sheet (p. 671) is wrongly folded and the pagination is far from continuous; there are no known "outs"; but the volume is not sold subject to collation. "As the earliest book of its class, it requires to be viewed with lenity, and also quoted with caution."— T. MAULE. Bibliotheca Heraldica. SCARCE.

9181 Minutes of the trial and examination of certain persons in New York, charged with a conspiracy against the laws of the Congress, and the liberties of America, pp. xiv, 111.

9183 NICOLAUS, episcopus Modrusiensis. Oratio in funere Reuerendissimi do | mini. Dñi Petri Cardinalis sancti Six | ti habita a Reuerēdo patre domino | Nicolas episcopo Modrusiensi. n. p. n. d., pp. 9, 30 + 31 lines. in 4° Fine old green crushed levant morocco, back gilt, sides and edges filleted, inside borders gilt and g. e. (by DEROME) IN CLEAN AND PERFECT STATE.

Probably printed in Rome immediately after the death of the Cardinal, which event took place Jan. 5, 1474. There were later editions — the first with a date was in 1483. Graesse, Brunet, and Hain are agreed that the edition described above may be safely assigned to 1474. The page measures 8 1-16 × 5 5-16 inches.

OWEN'S EPIGRAMS, ON VELLUM.

9185 OWEN (John) Joannis Audoeni Cambro-Britanni Epigrammata. Editio prioribus auctior, longeque emendatior, cura Ant. Aug. RENOUARD, Parisini. ONE OF FOUR COPIES PRINTED ON VELLUM by Didot, Paris, 1794, pp. xii, 525, plate; dk. green str.-grained morocco, filleted edges, inside borders, and lined with purple silk; IN CLEAN, BEAUTIFUL CONDITION. 2 vols. 12°

It is hardly necessary to say that these SUPERLATIVELY FINE volumes are all that typographic taste and art can express; while this edition of the celebrated Epigrammata is in all respects the best (see Lowndes, et al.). Renouard, in his Cat. de la Bibliothéque d'un Amateur (v. 2, p. 348) says that one of these four copies on vellum is in the "Bibliothéque du Roi," and another in Lord Spencer's (the Althorp) collection. There were many editions of the work, but it cost the author an expected inheritance, and was in 1654 put on the Index Expurgatorius of the Roman church.

9186 PIERSON (Abraham) Some Helps for the Indians; a Catechism in the language of the Quiripi Indians of New Haven Colony. Repr. from the orig. edition, Cambridge, 1658. With an intro. by J. Hammond Trumbull, pp. 11, 67, fac-simile of title page. (2 copies.) Hartford, 1873

SCARCE, only 100 copies printed. Priced by Quaritch at £3, 3s. The whole edition of Vol. III, Collections of the Conn. Histor. Soc., of which this was to form a part, was burned while in the bindery, and has not been reprinted. Of the original, only two copies are known.

TWO UNIQUE AND VALUABLE CHARTS.

9316 Boston Harbour. Original water-colored chart, by Philip Wells; with soundings without and comings in, as taken by Capt. John Fayrwether, Capt. Thomas Smith, Capt. Timothy Armitage, Capt. Joseph Eldridge, Masters, and Philip Wells, employed for the same by his Excellency Sir Edmund Andros, Knight, Captain General and Governour of His Majesties Territory and Dominion in New England in America. Size 17×22 inches. Scale one mile to one inch.

"THE EARLIEST KNOWN CHART OF THE HARBOR." See Winsor, J. Memorial History of Boston, Vol. ii. p. 1. A note by J. Hammond Trumbull is there given, from which the following passages are extracted:—

"The chart, which is very neatly drawn and colored, occupies about one foot square, on a sheet measuring 21 inches by 19 inches. The shoals, banks and reefs are shaded in colors, and single rocks and ledges are indicated by crosses. The soundings of the main channels and passages between the harbor islands are marked in fathoms. The scale is one inch to a mile.

"In the right-hand lower corner, under a scale of miles, is: 'By Philip Wells,' and below, in smaller letters, 'M. Carroll,'— probably the signature of the draughtsman.

"The inscription fixes the date of the chart nearly, between the arrival of Andros in December, 1686, and the revolution of April, 1689.

"Philip Wells had been Governor Dongan's surveyor in New York, and was one of the commissioners appointed to run the line between that province and Connecticut, in 1684. He made 'A Land Draught of New York Harbour,' which is also in Mr. Brinley's collection [See No. 9317], . . . drawn and lettered by the same hand and probably in the same year as that of Boston harbor. The two were found together, in a parcel of the 'Penn Papers,' sold in London, by Mr. E. G. Allen, in 1871, the Boston map bringing three guineas. It is numbered No. 281 in Allen's catalogue.

"Capt. John Fayerweather, who had served in the Indian war of 1675–76, and commanded one of the Boston train-bands, was a prominent man in Boston before and after the Usurpation. At the Revolution of April, 1689, he was appointed commander of the Castle. Capt. Thomas Smith commanded the 'Jersey' frigate in the Expedition against the Eastern Indians, in 1704. Of Captains Armitage and Eldrige I know little more than their names."

9317 New York Harbour. Original water-colored chart; a Land Draught of New York Harbour, by Philip Wells. Size 17×22 inches. Scale 7 miles to one inch.

See above note to No. 9316.

9358 GREENE (Nathaniel) Major-General in the Revolution, a. l. s. 3 pages folio and address, "West Point, Oct. 15, 1780," to Col. Wadsworth.

... "I think I have not written you since the late desertion of Arnold. Was you ever more astonished in your life? A man high in reputation, and with the fairest prospects of domestic happiness. The love of parade and the thirst for gold has proved his ruin. How black, how despised, loved by none, and hated by all. Once his country's Idol, now her horror. Curse on his folly, nay his villainy, and most of all his meanness. The latter has been displayed in such dirty colours in his transactions at this post, as has not been equalled in the history of man. All kind of private and public robbery has he pursued, and accompanyed it, with such circumstances of littleness as shows him to be the basest of mortals. I freely confess I had no conception notwithstanding the converse I have had with mankind, that it was possible for human nature to arrive at such a degree of corruption. The discovery has been very providential. Had these posts fallen into the enemies hands, God knows what might have been the consequence. But I think little short of the entire subjection of America. What a triumph to british pride; and what a downfall to American glory. Poor Congress what would have become of you? ... The General has sent me to take command here; but for how long a time I know not." ...

9359 — a. l. s. 3 pages folio and address, "Prospect Hill, Sept. 12, 1775," to Gov. Cooke of R. I.

... "Things here remain much in the same situation as they have been for some time past. For several Days past firing has ceast totally. It is said by several Deserters out of Boston that the last ship arrived, brings accounts that the difference is soon to be settled — but unless the Ministry is overset the dispute never will be settled. If we can preserve our freedom and continue our connexion I should be very glad of it — but I had rather continue in the field seven years than submit to their tyranical measures." ...

... "Nothing important has turned up with the Army since Arnold's Treason — Joshua Smith is on Tryal — I am told Arnold's papers seized at Philadelphia have opened some scenes in the Speculating Way wherein several at Phila. are concerned — it is said Mease the late Clothier General is one; not improbable I think much is said of M^rs. Arnold's correspondence with Major André — but it appears nothing more than a complimentary Card from André to her, which came out in an open manner at one of the Interviews of the Commissioners for the Exchange of Prisoners." ...

". . . I am thus far on my Return from Head Quarters, where I have finished my last Duty to poor André, of whom I wrote you particularly before. I have begged this scrap of paper of Gen'l Wayne . . . to inform you that Major André was hanged on the 2d instant, 12 o'clock. His conduct was unparalled on the occasion. He met death with a smile, chearfully marching to the place of execution, & bidding his friends, those who had been with him, farewell. He called me to him a few minutes before he swung off, and expressed his Gratitude to me for my Civilities in such a way, and so chearfully bid me adieu, that I was obliged to leave the parade in a flood of Tears. I cannot say enough of his fortitude — unfortunate Youth; I wish Arnold had been in his place. . . ."
